

A VERY UNUSUAL

BIKE RIDE

The day Pip the pelican learned to ride.

A little story about balance, bravery,
and a big beak.

PIP'S FIRST RIDE

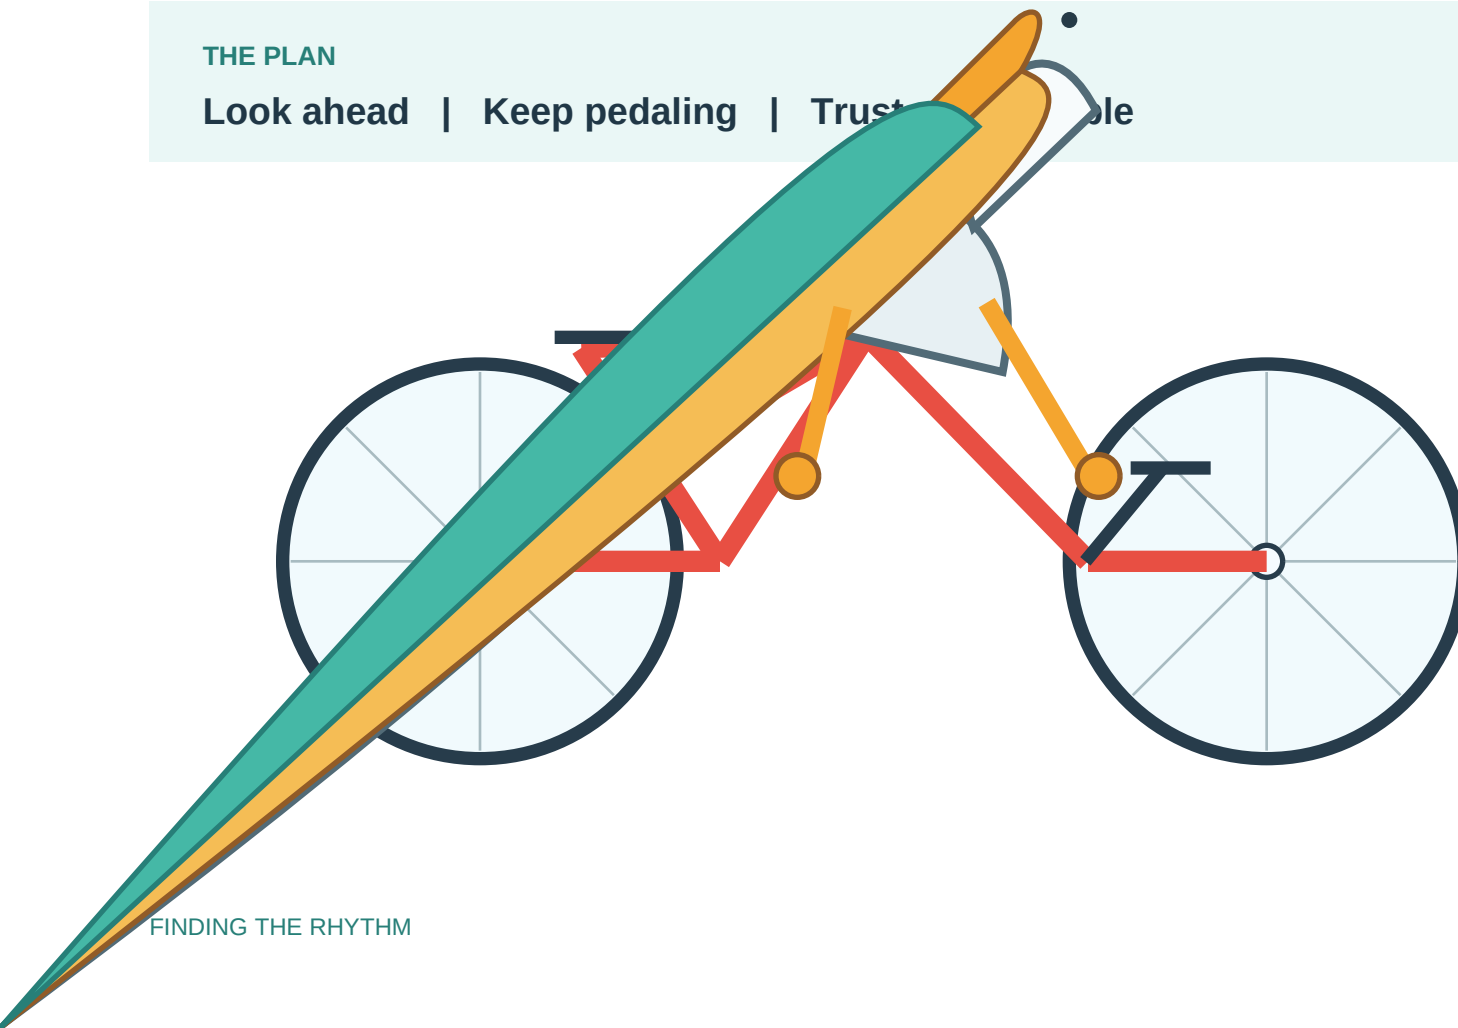

Two wheels. One wobbly pelican.

Pip had the feathers. Pip had the enthusiasm.

The steering part took a little practice.

THE PLAN

Look ahead | Keep pedaling | Trust the pelican

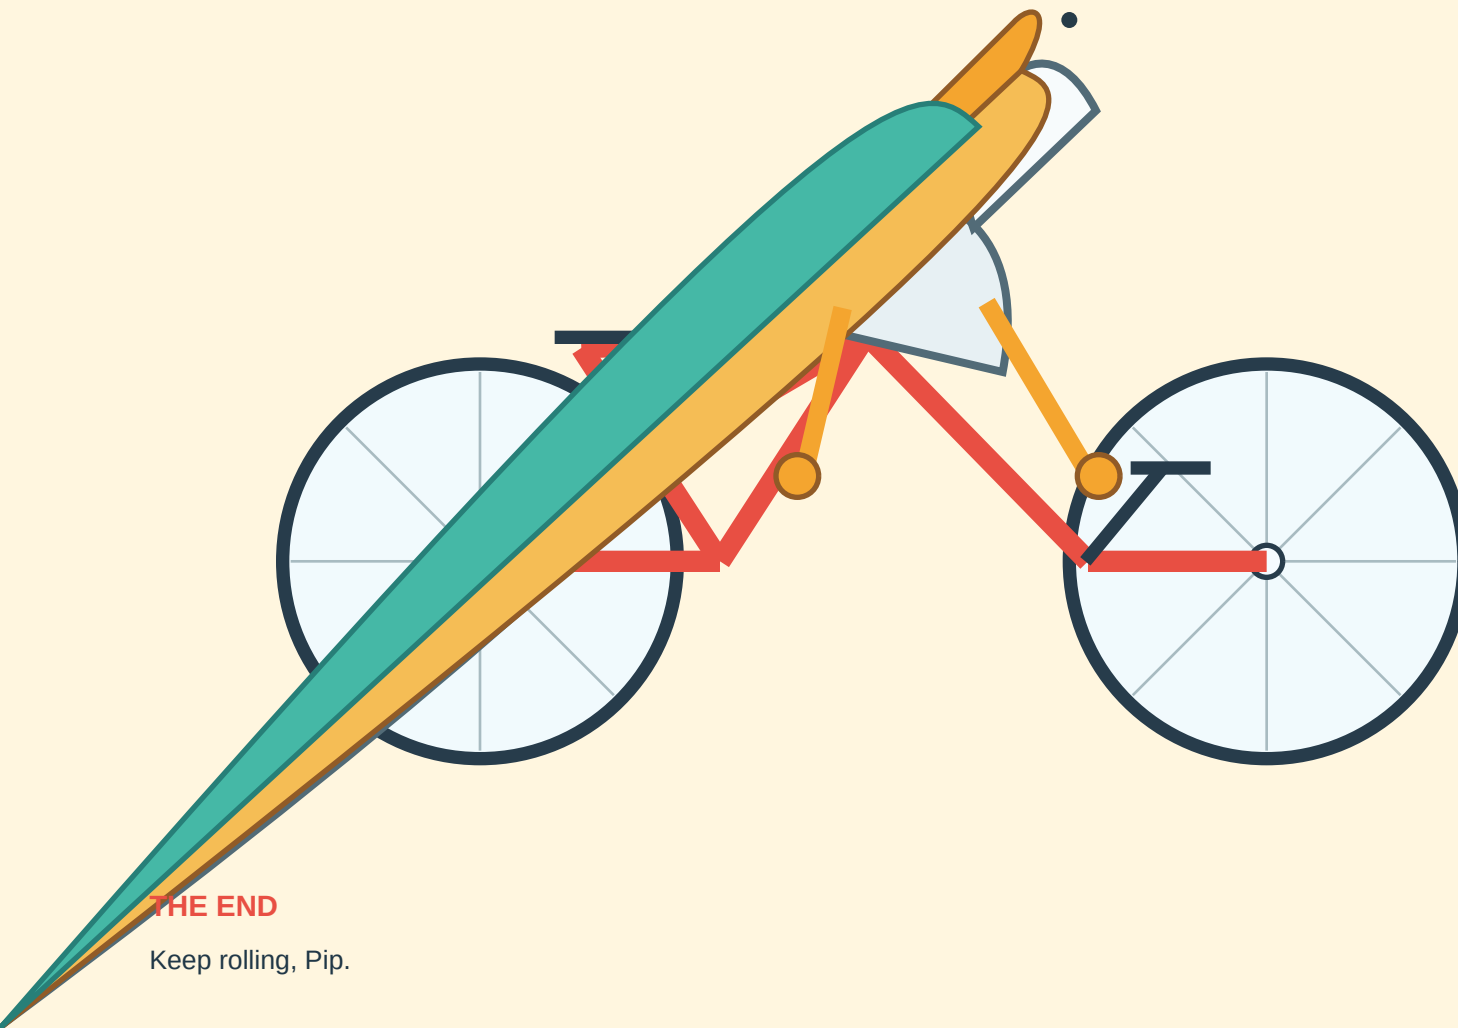

AND THEN... OFF HE WENT!

A wobble became a glide.

Past the daisies, over the hill, scarf in the breeze.

Pip discovered that confidence can look a little shaky at first-and still carry you somewhere wonderful.

THE END

Keep rolling, Pip.
